

Simplifying Cleanliness for Early Education Professionals

Spotsmith specializes in serving industries that we know well. This means tailoring products and services to meet the unique needs of early education professionals. Primarily, National Association for the Education of Young Children NAEYC accredited programs. It is about customizing the way we deliver these services for the ease of cleaning certification.

We teach our employees more than just cleaning techniques. We teach them our business. They understand how our business works, and why we deliver services to funeral home professionals in a slightly different manner than other customers. The result is an unparalleled level of service and the most thorough cleaning for your funeral home.

Our programs are designed to maximize carpet's natural health benefits for children and to prolong the life of carpets and floors by minimizing wear from the impact of dirt build-up.

Family Owned & Operated

There is just something special about including in our work the people we most care about. That care translates into providing a superior level of service to our customers.
